NOVEMBER ALGEBRA NEWSLETTER

Welcome to November! With grades, assessments, and the flu, things have been crazy! Seminar is going well. Students have worked through chapters 1,2,3,4,5, and 7 already! We are studying inequalities and will continue with the rest of Ch 6 for the next few weeks. We are looking at assessing Ch 6 in a few weeks and then we can devote seminar to preparing for the Mid-Term exam.

The mid term is planned for Monday December 21 from 9-11 am. We are holding two extra seminars to help prepare for this; Monday December 14 and Wednesday December 16 at the normal time - music students - you are excused from music on those dates.

Please give feedback in regards to the Algebra Power Indicators Rubric you received in addition to the report card that shows your student's learning in Algebra. (My email is klegg@ccsuvt.org) Our aim is to give more detailed information about each student's strengths and weaknesses in learning Algebra. We can easily look at the information and determine which topics need more review and/or instruction. You and your student can identify which topics need some more time and which are secure.

Mrs. Watts and I are available every Wednesday afternoon, most mornings at 7:15, and most other afternoons. Your student just needs to let us know when he/she is coming to see one of us. We have extra practice for all of the topics learned this year.

Thank you for your continued support and feedback!
