

Bonjour à tous!

I will be available in the Learning Center next Monday from 2:30 – 4:45 if you would like to stop and say Bonjour! or if you have any questions. You can also find me at Fleming next Monday evening from 5:30 until 7:45 if that is more convenient (I will be upstairs in the World Language classroom).

ATTENTION: Our theme for the second session of French (starts the week of December 7th) is OÙ? or Where? and each week we will explore this question in a different context. I am planning on including a cultural element to our experience each week, and invite any of you who have lived in a French-speaking region to be a guest in our classes and share your experiences with us. Please contact me by email at dclayton@ccsuvt.org to arrange a day and time in advance, merci! (et bien sûr si vous êtes francophone ou capable de faire votre mini-présentation en français et de partager votre bel accent, tant mieux!)

Bonne fête de l'action de grâces!
(Happy Thanksgiving)

Mme Diana Clayton
