

French Connection: Nouvelles de décembre

Bonjour! This week was the final session of French - Session 1, and we have looked at multiple websites to explore in French or even other languages, which may be accessed from the Summit Street School home page:

<http://www.ccsuvt.org/summit/world-language/>

Most of these websites have audio components - bonne chance (good luck) in your explorations!

Students in most of today's classes may have received a Scholastic Canada book order for French books. Blank book order forms can be picked up in the front office for students that did not have French this week, or they will be available in class next week (December 10, 2009). Forms need to be turned in by next Friday, December 11, 2009 (ideally either to myself or to the front office). The process of ordering books is a little more complicated and here are some tips:

- For an english language description of each product visit the following website :
<http://www.scholastic.ca/kids/alltitles/>
- Order form: Price - look for the last column ($US - no tax or shipping)
- Level 1 or 2 is reasonable for a second language! (marked as Niveau 1 - 4)
- Checks should be payable to: Scholastic Canada Ltd.
- Questions? Email Mme Clayton dclayton@ccsuvt.org

À la prochaine.....(until next time) Mme. Clayton
